Hunger Offering today

Hunger Ministry Offering will be collected this Sunday, April 14, before and after both services. See the table in the back of the cathedral, or the offering boxes near to door, to give your offering which supports six ministries serving those who suffer from food scarcity around Seattle. This is our usual second-week-of-the-month offering. Thanks to all who give!

No Children's Chapel or Sunday School today

During Palm Sunday and Easter Day liturgies, children are invited to sit with their parents in lieu of Children's Chapel. Today there will be an activity for all ages in the Cathedral Nave following the 9 a.m. service. On Easter Day, between the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. service there will be an Easter egg hunt on the front lawn. Bring a basket to collect eggs!

Lowell Elementary School Needs Your Voice of Support!

Our neighborhood school, Lowell Elementary, is facing the possible loss of several staff positions next school year because of proposed budget cuts. This is based on a low projection for student enrollment and doesn't account for the fact that Mary's Place Shelter is scheduled to return to the area in January when an influx of homeless students will join the school again mid-year. Lowell PTA is asking supporters to write letters to the school board (schoolboard@seattleschools.org) and Superintendent Juneau (superintendent@seattleschools.org), asking them to reconsider these proposed cuts. Here is the link on the Lowell PTA website outlining the situation, and accompanying letter to Superintendent Juneau, which you may use as a template for your own letter: <https://lowellelementary.org/2019/03/22/we-are-facing-big-staff-cuts-next-year/> For more information, contact Marjorie Ringness at marjorie@ringness.org

Take the Pledge to Care for Creation

For Lent 2019, Presiding Bishop Michael Curry, the Episcopal Church's Task Force on Creation Care, and Bishops in dioceses throughout the Episcopal Church invite you to make your Pledge to Care for Creation. The Pledge to Care for Creation is part of living as the Jesus Movement—it's a promise to protect and renew this good Earth and all who call it home. It's a promise to share our stories, stand with those who are most vulnerable, and live more gently on the Earth. Visit <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/creation-care/pledge> to hear the reasons they're taking the pledge, and some of the changes they're making in their own lives—then when you are ready, take the pledge for yourself.

Education for Ministry (EfM) registration for 2019/20

Do you want to go deeper into your faith in an intense, ongoing way? Do you want to form lasting connections with others who also seek that connection? Consider registering for EfM. EfM is a four-year program for lay people to study scripture, church history, and modern theology. Classes connect the material with church tradition, personal experiences, individual beliefs and current events. Three different classes meet weekly September to June at Saint Mark's: Sundays, 6:30–8:30 p.m.; Mondays, 10 a.m.–12:30 p.m.; or Mondays, 6:30–8:30 p.m. Each class is limited to 12 people; enrollment starts now and ends in early August or when classes are full. Tuition, including books, is $375. Please inquire by contacting clergy or class mentors: Sunday evening: Penelope Jackson, pbjackson@mac.com; Monday morning: Maria Coldwell, mvcoldwell@hotmail.com; Monday evening: Tom Hayton, tomhayton@yahoo.com.
