SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER ♦ APRIL 28, 2019

SUNDAY FORUM

Alan Davidson on the Early History of Saint Mark's Parish

TODAY, APRIL 28, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Alan Davidson, author of The History of Saint Mark's Episcopal Cathedral: St. Mark's Parish 1889-1897 will discuss the momentous events which occurred exactly 130 years ago this week, when Saint Mark's came into existence as Seattle's second Episcopal Church—events whose impact continues to be felt to the present day.

My Soul is Filled with Joy: A Holocaust Story with Seattle author Karen Treiger

SUNDAY, MAY 5, 12:30-2 P.M., Bloedel Hall

Winner of a 2019 Bronze IPPY Award (Independent Publisher)!

Join Seattle author Karen Treiger as she talks about her award-winning book which recounts the harrowing tale of her in-laws, Sam and Esther Goldberg. Sam and Esther survived the Holocaust and ultimately escaped to settle in the United States. [Sam was one of only 65 people to escape from the Treblinka death camp and survive throughout WWII. Sam met his wife Esther while she was on the run from Nazi soldiers herself.] The Goldberg's story is one of persistence and hope in the midst of the horrors from WWII. Karen is an accomplished and dynamic speaker and has presented at many conferences, community events, and is a member of the Seattle Holocaust Center for Humanity's Speakers' Bureau. She recently retired from practicing law.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

Saint Mark's Heritage Sunday

SUNDAY, MAY 26, 2019

As a special celebration during the Easter Season we will remember those who've gone before us in this place, and celebrate those whose longevity and leadership among us is a source of inspiration. Former Dean, The Rt. Rev. Cabell (Cabby) Tennis will be our preacher, and we will say special prayers at the 8 a.m. and 9 a.m. services honoring the legacy of those who've gone before. At the 11 a.m. Cathedral Eucharist, we will:

- ♦ Feature prayers, canticles, and hymns drawn from earlier editions of the BCP and Hymnal.
- ♦ Recognize those who have been members of Saint Mark's Cathedral for 25 years or more, and those who've reached the auspicious age of 80 years or more.

Following the 11 a.m. service, there will be a catered lunch for members of the Cathedral Legacy Society and in honor of those recognized during the service. We will have several relics from the cathedral archives on display. To RSVP for the lunch or for more information, email Erik Donner at edonner@saintmarks.org or call the church office.

Episcopalian People of Color Gathering

TODAY, APRIL 28, 12:30 P.M., Cathedral House Room 210

April 28 is the next monthly meeting for this group, which is for queer, trans, and straight people of color interested in exploring questions of racial, cultural, and gender identities as they relate to experiences of faith and life. This ministry is led by POC members of Saint Mark's and is for any POC interested in the work of decolonizing their Christianity, practicing anti-racism from a POC perspective, and honoring queer-centered theology as these topics relate to personal identity and lived experience. It starts with a short liturgy, followed by a meal and a safe space for those exploring what it means to be a person of color inside a white majority church. For more information, contact Emma Song-Rowe at emma.song.rowe@gmail.com or Canon Jennifer Daugherty at jkdaugherty@saintmarks.org

Compline Choir's new CD: Of the Lord's Mercies ON SALE TODAY, APRIL 28, AFTER MORNING SERVICES, Cathedral Narthex

The Compline Choir's new album Of the Lord's Mercies, featuring music for Lent, Holy Week, and Eastertide. This recording combines some of choir's best-loved seasonal music with music newly composed. The disc features eleven premiere recordings: works by director Jason A. Anderson, composer-in-residence Erin Aas, local Seattle-area musician Thomas Foster, and former director Peter R. Hallock, including If we could shut the gate for choir, organ, and violin. In addition, the album includes new recordings of Hallock's Lamentations of the Prophet Jeremiah for choir and cello, and Come, Holy Spirit.

THE ARTS AT SAINT MARK'S

All-Bach Concert on the Flentrop: Edoardo Bellotti, organist

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 7:30 P.M., Cathedral Nave

The Arts at Saint Mark's presents this last concert of the 2018–19 Music Series! Edoardo Bellotti is an organist renowned for his insightful and energetic performances of baroque music. Through an all-Bach program, audiences will experience how Bellotti blends "historical research and creativity...into a charming performance" (Corriere della Sera, Italy). A reception in the nave will follow this performance. Tickets can be purchased at saintmarks.org/concerts

MIDEAST FOCUS FILM SERIES

Naila and the Uprising

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 7:00 P.M., Bloedel Hall

This film inventively chronicles the remarkable journey of Naila Ayesh—a woman who must choose between love, family and freedom. She chooses all three. Part of The Mideast Focus Ministry Film Series, presenting films about Palestine/Israel in Bloedel Hall to all wishing to attend on the first Friday of each month.

Hunger and Homelessness Advocacy Ministry Meeting and Study Session

SATURDAY, MAY 4, 10 A.M.–12 P.M., Leffler Living Room

Join the continuing discussion regarding the new advocacy effort to support those who face hunger and homelessness. Explore what new efforts the SMC community is being called to this year. On Saturday, May 4, come to meet The Rev. Deacon Brian Wright and to learn about efforts he is leading on the Eastside to serve homeless neighbors, and the work of the Diocesan Homelessness Task Force. Finger foods will be provided. For more information contact David Wagner, akdavid710@gmail.com

Choral Evensong on the Third Sunday of Easter

SUNDAY, MAY 5, 4:30 P.M., Cathedral Nave

On May 5 Saint Mark's Evensong Choir will offer Charles Villiers Stanford's splendid setting of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis in C major. The anthem will be a setting by Josef Gabriel Rheinberger's radiant Abendlied, a setting of Luke 24:29—the disciples' invitation to the resurrected Christ on the road to Emmaus, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." (The final Choral Evensong of the season will occur on June 2, observing the Feast of the Ascension.)

20s + 30s

Questioning Together

MONDAY, MAY 6, 7:30 P.M., Leffler Living Room

Come be a part of this lively discussion over a light dinner. Our topic this month: How are spirituality and sexuality connected? Contact Rachel McNary (rachel.mcnary@gmail.com) for questions or to RSVP (appreciated but not required).

Introduction to Restorative Justice

SATURDAY, MAY 11, 9:00 A.M., Cathedral House 210

A transformative methodology for community building and conflict resolution using a restorative approach. Restorative Practices support people to step into important and difficult conversations in ways that increase connection and understanding. It provides true community-based solutions, accountability, and transformative change while deepening trust. The training will focus on a methodology of talking circles and a conflict engagement based on Dominic Barter's Restorative Circle model. Questions, contact Pam Orbach, pamorbach@empoweringconnection.com For registration and more information: <https://centerforrestorativesolutionsseattle.com/intro-to-restorative-justice-may-2019>

THE WISDOM SCHOOL AT SAINT MARK'S Wisdom Praxis/Practice Circle

SATURDAY, MAY 11, 9 A.M.-3 P.M.

Come for a wisdom day grounded in contemplative practices of meditation and lectio divina, contemplative chant and movement, and small group conversation, focused on the three centers of our Being as Ways of Knowing. The event is facilitated by The Rev. Patricia Rome Robertson, former rector of St. Stephen's Church in Seattle and a 20-year student of Centering Prayer and Cynthia Bourgeault. Fee: $50, space is limited. Visit saintmarks.org/wisdom to learn more and to register.

Cathedral Book Discussion Group

SUNDAY, MAY 12, 2019, 12:30 P.M., Cathedral House 209

John R. Rice was one of the leading fundamentalist voices in the twentieth century. In The Sword of the Lord: the Roots of Fundamentalism in an American Family, his grandson, Saint Mark's parishioner and vestry member Andrew Himes, weaves his family history with American history and thought to show how fundamentalist Christianity developed out of these historic events and was a reaction to them. Andrew will join our book discussion on May 12, following the 11:00 service, in Cathedral House Room 209. Questions: Karen Knudson, knudsonkn@hotmail.com

Active Assailant and Violence on Faith-Based Properties: Proactive and Reactive Readiness

SATURDAY, MAY 25, 2019, 9 A.M. TO 2:30 P.M., Bloedel Hall. Fee: $15, includes lunch

In the light of both recent and historical events, Saint Mark's Cathedral will host this important emergency preparedness workshop facilitated by Ronald J. Miller, retired police officer and Safety and Security Coordinator for the Diocese of Olympia, and Joanne L. Miller, nurse practitioner and former hospital trauma coordinator. The workshop will look at the history of violent attacks on places of worship, strategies of prevention and de-escalation, and protocols for when the unthinkable happens. Anyone interested in the topic is encouraged to attend; Clergy, Staff, Vestry, Ushers, Greeters, any other front-line volunteers, and leadership of Choirs and Children & Youth Ministries are particularly urged to participate. To register, visit saintmarks.org/emergency

Cathedral Chairs as a Eastertide Memorial Gift

If you receive emails from the cathedral, you should have received a message from Dean Thomason earlier this week in which you are invited to make a gift in memory of a loved one in the form a cathedral chair to furnish the nave as some of our pews near the end of their usable life. The cost of a chair and memorial plaque, which will last for decades to come, will be approximately $475. You will hear more about this in the coming weeks. (To sign up for emails, please visit saintmarks.org/news and follow the sign-up link.)

“ON SAINT MARK’S CATHEDRAL”

This week’s short video by David Wild is titled “On the Holy Box” and features reflections on our building by a variety of community members. You may watch it on the Cathedral’s Facebook page, its YouTube account, and at saintmarks.org/video
