Visitors from across the Diocese of Olympia and beyond: welcome to your cathedral! Out of respect for the liturgy we are about to celebrate, please turn off all cell phones and audible devices. Please, no unauthorized photography or filming during the liturgy. Please be aware that, as part of our effort to serve those who cannot attend worship, this service will be livestreamed on the internet. A complete video will be available online after the service.

Children of any age are always welcome at Saint Mark’s liturgies. In addition, child care during services is available in the Child Care Center, located in the west end of the cathedral building. You may reach the Child Care Center through the southwest doors of the nave, or by taking the elevator to the 5th floor. Ushers will guide you.

ABOUT BERNARD MIZEKI

The Ordination liturgy this year observes the commemoration of Bernard Mizeki, catechist and martyr in Mashonaland (c. 1861–1896).

Bernard Mizeki was born about the year 1861 in Portuguese East Africa (now Mozambique). In his early teens, he moved in Cape Town, South Africa, where he was befriended and converted by Anglican missionaries. He was baptized on March 9, 1886.

In 1891, Bernard Mizeki volunteered as a lay catechist and medical worker for the pioneer mission in Mashonaland (a region in what is now northern Zimbabwe) working among the Nhowe people. On June 18, 1896, during an uprising of the native people against the Europeans and their African friends, Bernard was marked out especially. Though warned to flee, he would not desert his converts at the mission station. He was stabbed to death, but his body was never found, and the exact site of his burial is unknown.

A shrine near Bernard’s place of martyrdom attracts many pilgrims today, including, in 2017, a visit by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry. The Anglican Churches of Central and of Southern Africa honor him as their primary native martyr and witness.

THE GATHERING

PRELUDE  Prelude, theme & three variations from Choral varié sur le thème du “Veni Creator,” Op. 4

As the opening hymn is introduced, all rise as able.

HYMN IN PROCESSION  I bind unto myself today

WORDS: Æmbhath indiu, Old Irish, 5th century[?]
TRANS. BY Cecil Francis Alexander (1818–1865)
TUNE: St. Patrick’s Breastplate, traditional Irish hymn tune
ADAPT. Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924)

1. I bind unto myself today the strong Name of the Trinity, by invocation of the same, the Three in One, and One in Three.

2. I bind this day to me for ever, by power of faith, Christ’s Incarnation;
3. I bind unto myself the power of the great love of cherubim;
4. I bind unto myself today the virtues of the star-lit heav’n,
5. I bind unto myself today the power of God to hold and lead, his baptism in the Jordan river; his death on cross for my salvation;

the sweet “Well done” in judgment hour; the service of the seraphim;
the glorious sun’s life-giving ray, the whiteness of the moon at even;
his eye to watch, his might to stay, his ear to hearken to my need;

his bursting from the spiced tomb; his riding up the heav’nly way;
confessors’ faith, apostles’ word, the patriarchs’ prayers, the prophets’ scrolls;
the flashing of the lightning free, the whirling wind’s tempestuous shocks, the wisdom of my God to teach, his hand to guide, his shield to ward;

his coming at the day of doom: I bind unto myself today, all good deeds done unto the Lord, and purity of virgin souls.
the stable earth, the deep salt sea, around the old eternal rocks.
the word of God to give me speech, his heav’nly host to be my guard.

Please turn the page for stanzas 6 & 7.
6. Christ be with me, Christ with-in me, Christ be-hind me, Christ be-fore me, Christ be-neath me, Christ a-bove me, Christ in qui-et, Christ in dan-ger,

7. I bind un-to my-self the Name, the strong Name of the Tri-ni-ty, by in-vo-ca-tion of the same, the Three in One, and One in Three. Of whom all na-ture hath cre-ation, e-ter-nal

Fa-ther, Spi-rit, Word: praise to the Lord of my sal-va-tion, sal-va-tion is of Christ the Lord!

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Assembly   And Blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Presider  Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

All  Amen.

All are seated
THE PRESENTATION

Those who seek ordination to the priesthood are nominated by their own congregation, recommended to the Bishop by the diocesan Commission on Ministry, and approved by the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

For each ordinand in turn:

Presenters  Greg, Bishop in the Church of God, on behalf of the clergy and people of the Diocese of Olympia, we present to you N.N. to be ordained a priest in Christ’s holy catholic Church.

Bishop  Has he been selected in accordance with the canons of this Church? And do you believe his manner of life to be suitable to the exercise of this ministry?

Presenters  We certify to you that he has satisfied the requirements of the canons, and we believe him qualified for this order.

The Bishop addresses the ordinand:

Bishop  Will you be loyal to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of Christ as this Church has received them? And will you, in accordance with the canons of this Church, obey your bishop and other ministers who may have authority over you and your work?

Ordinand  I am willing and ready to do so; and I solemnly declare that I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and I do solemnly engage to conform to the doctrine, discipline, and worship of the Episcopal Church.

The ordinand and the Bishop then sign the above declaration in the sight of all present.

After all the ordinands have been presented and examined, all rise as able.

The Bishop addresses the entire Assembly:

Bishop  Dear friends in Christ, you know the importance of this ministry, and the weight of your responsibility in presenting Arlen Thomas Farley, Jonathan Whitney Hanneman, and Christopher Ryan McPeak for ordination to the sacred priesthood. Therefore if any of you know any impediment or crime because of which we should not proceed, come forward now, and make it known.

If no objection is made, the Bishop continues

Bishop  Is it your will that Arlen, Jonathan, and Christopher be ordained priests?

Assembly  It is.

Bishop  Will you uphold them in this ministry?

Assembly  We will.

Bishop  In peace let us pray to the Lord.

The Assembly stands or kneels as able for the Litany.

Collect for ordinations

Presider The Lord be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light: Look favorably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery; by the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquillity the plan of salvation; let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.
THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING
Nehemiah 6:6–11

Sanballat the Samaritan sent a letter saying: “It is reported among the nations—and Geshem also says it—that you and the Jews intend to rebel; that is why you are building the wall; and according to this report you wish to become their king. You have also set up prophets to proclaim in Jerusalem concerning you, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. So come, therefore, and let us confer together.” Then I, Nehemiah, sent to him, saying, “No such things as you say have been done; you are inventing them out of your own mind” —for they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will drop from the work, and it will not be done.” But now, O God, strengthen my hands.

One day when I went into the house of Shemaiah son of Delaiah son of Mehetabel, who was confined to his house, he said, “Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you; indeed, tonight they are coming to kill you.” But I said, “Should a man like me run away? Would a man like me go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in!”

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
Assembly  Thanks be to God.

PSALM
Psalm 116:1–8

The Cantor introduces the antiphon; all repeat it.
The Cantor chants the psalm verses, all repeating the antiphon as indicated.

ANTIPHON [Ps 116:11]
I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call upon the Name of the LORD, hal-le-lu-jah!

Dilexi, quoniam

I love the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my supplication, * because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.

2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
ANTIPHON

3 Then I called upon the Name of the LORD: *
“O LORD, I pray you, save my life.”
ANTIPHON

4 Gracious is the LORD and righteous; *
our God is full of compassion.
ANTIPHON

5 The LORD watches over the innocent; *
I was brought very low, and he helped me.

6 Turn again to your rest, O my soul, *
for the LORD has treated you well.
ANTIPHON

7 For you have rescued my life from death, *
my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.

8 I will walk in the presence of the LORD *
in the land of the living.
ANTIPHON
READING
Revelation 7:13-17

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, “Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?” I said to him, “Sir, you are the one that knows.” Then he said to me, “These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly  Thanks be to God.

SEQUENCE HYMN
Ye watchers and ye holy ones
(Stanzas 1 & 4)

WORDS: J. Athelstan Riley (1858–1945)

1. Ye watchers and ye holy ones, bright seraphs, cherubim, and thrones,
4. O friends, in gladness let us sing, supernal anthems echoing,

1. raise the glad strain, Alleluia! Cry out, dominions, prince-doms, powers,
4. Alleluia, alleluia! To God the Father, God the Son,

Refrain

1. virtues, archangels, angels’ choirs, Alleluia, alleluia,
4. and God the Spirit, Three in One, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!
THE HOLY GOSPEL  Luke 12:2–12

Deacon  The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Assembly  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

NOTHING is covered up that will not be uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops.

“I tell you, my friends, do not fear those who kill the body, and after that can do nothing more. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear him who, after he has killed, has authority to cast into hell. Yes, I tell you, fear him! Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? Yet not one of them is forgotten in God’s sight. But even the hairs of your head are all counted. Do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows.

“And I tell you, everyone who acknowledges me before others, the Son of Man also will acknowledge before the angels of God; but whoever denies me before others will be denied before the angels of God. And everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, do not worry about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say; for the Holy Spirit will teach you at that very hour what you ought to say.”

Deacon  The Gospel of the Lord.

Assembly  Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON  The Right Reverend Gregory H. Rickel
THE BAPTISMAL COVENANT

The Bishop reminds the Assembly that the foundation of all ministry is in Baptism and invites the entire Assembly, along with the ordinands, to renew their Baptismal Covenant. All rise as able and turn to face the baptismal font in the rear of the nave.

Presider  Do you reaffirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?
Assembly  I do.

Presider  Do you believe in God the Father?
Assembly  I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Presider  Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
Assembly  I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Presider  Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?
Assembly  I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Presider  Will you continue in the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
Assembly  I will, with God’s help.

Presider  Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
Assembly  I will, with God’s help.

Presider  Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
Assembly  I will, with God’s help.

Presider  Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
Assembly  I will, with God’s help.

Presider  Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
Assembly  I will, with God’s help.

Presider  May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All  Amen.

The Bishop and the ordinands sprinkle the Assembly with water from the font as a sign and reminder of our Baptism.
All are seated except the ordinands, who stand before the Bishop. The Bishop addresses the ordinands:

Bishop  My brothers, the Church is the family of God, the body of Christ, and the temple of the Holy Spirit. All baptized people are called to make Christ known as Savior and Lord, and to share in the renewing of his world. Now you are called to work as a pastor, priest, and teacher, together with your bishop and fellow presbyters, and to take your share in the councils of the Church.

As a priest, it will be your task to proclaim by word and deed the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and to fashion your life in accordance with its precepts. You are to love and serve the people among whom you work, caring alike for young and old, strong and weak, rich and poor. You are to preach, to declare God’s forgiveness to penitent sinners, to pronounce God’s blessing, to share in the administration of Holy Baptism and in the celebration of the mysteries of Christ’s Body and Blood, and to perform the other ministrations entrusted to you.

In all that you do, you are to nourish Christ’s people from the riches of his grace, and strengthen them to glorify God in this life and in the life to come.

My brothers, do you believe that you are truly called by God and the Church to this priesthood?

Ordinands  I believe I am so called.

Bishop  Do you now in the presence of the Church commit yourself to this trust and responsibility?

Ordinands  I do.

Bishop  Will you respect and be guided by the pastoral direction and leadership of your bishop?

Ordinands  I will.

Bishop  Will you be diligent in the reading and study of the Holy Scriptures, and in seeking the knowledge of such things as may make you a stronger and more able minister of Christ?

Ordinands  I will.

Bishop  Will you endeavor so to minister the Word of God and the sacraments of the New Covenant, that the reconciling love of Christ may be known and received?

Ordinands  I will.

Bishop  Will you undertake to be a faithful pastor to all whom you are called to serve, laboring together with them and with your fellow ministers to build up the family of God?

Ordinands  I will.

Bishop  Will you do your best to pattern your life and that of your family in accordance with the teachings of Christ, so that you may be a wholesome example to your people?

Ordinands  I will.

Bishop  Will you persevere in prayer, both in public and in private, asking God’s grace, both for yourself and for others, offering all your labors to God, through the mediation of Jesus Christ, and in the sanctification of the Holy Spirit?

Ordinands  I will.

Bishop  May the Lord who has given you the will to do these things give you the grace and power to perform them.

Ordinands  Amen.
THE CONSECRATION OF THE PRIESTS

All now stand except the ordinands, who kneel facing the Bishop, and the Presbyters who stand to the right and left of the Bishop.

Hymn  Veni Creator Spiritus (sung by the Cantor alone)
Latin, 9th century; Plainsong Mode 8 trans. John Webster Grant (1919–2006)

A period of silent prayer follows, the Assembly still standing.

Prayer of Consecration

Bishop

God and Father of all, we praise you for your infinite love in calling us to be a holy people in the kingdom of your Son Jesus our Lord, who is the image of your eternal and invisible glory, the firstborn among many brethren, and the head of the Church. We thank you that by his death he has overcome death, and, having ascended into heaven, has poured his gifts abundantly upon your people, making some apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, some pastors and teachers, to equip the saints for the work of ministry and the building up of his body.

Here the Bishop lays hands upon the head of each ordinand in turn, the Priests who are present also laying on their hands.

Therefore, Father, through Jesus Christ your Son, give your Holy Spirit to N.; fill him with grace and power, and make him a priest in your Church.

When this has been completed for each ordinand, the Bishop continues:

May they exalt you, O Lord, in the midst of your people; offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to you; boldly proclaim the gospel of salvation; and rightly administer the sacraments of the New Covenant. Make them faithful pastors, patient teachers, and wise councilors. Grant that in all things they may serve without reproach, so that your people may be strengthened and your Name glorified in all the world. All this we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever.

The Assembly, in a loud voice, responds: Amen.

The new Priests are now vested according to the order of Priests.

The Bishop then gives a Bible to the newly ordained, saying:

Bishop  Receive this Bible as a sign of the authority given you to preach the Word of God and to administer God’s holy Sacraments. Do not forget the trust committed to you as a priest of the Church of God.
THE PEACE
The new Priests bid the peace: The peace of the Lord be always with you.
Assembly And also with you.
All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

An offering of money is collected. The funds collected will establish discretionary funds for the new Priests.
Please make checks payable to The Diocese of Olympia.

OFFERTORY VOLUNTARY Organ Meditation on Martyrdom C. Hubert H. Parry (1848 –1918)
[tune of Hymn #658, “As longs the deer for cooling streams”]

All rise as able as the gifts of bread, wine, and money are brought forward and presented at the altar table.

HYMN Alleluia! Sing to Jesus
WORDS: William Chatterton Dix (1837–1898)
TUNE: Hyfrydol, Rowland Hugh Prichard (1811–1887)

1. Al-le-lu-ia! sing to Je-sus! his the scep-ter, his the throne;
2. Al-le-lu-ia! praise to the tri-u-umph, his the vic-to-ry a-lone;
3. Al-le-lu-ia! bread of Hea-ven, Thou on earth our food, our stay!
4. Al-le-lu-ia! here the sin-ful flee to thee from day to day:
5. Al-le-lu-ia! born of Ma-ry, earth thy foot-stool, heaven thy throne:

Hark! the songs of peace-ful Zi-on thun-der like a migh-ty flood;
In-ter-ces-sor, friend of sin-ners, earth’s Re-deem-er, plead for me, thou with-in the veil hast en-tered, robed in flesh, our great High Priest:

Je-sus out of ev-ery na-tion hath re-deemed us by his blood.
where the songs of all the sin-less sweep a-cross the crys-tal sea.
thou on earth both Priest and Vic-tim in the eu-char-is-tic feast.
THE GREAT THANKSGIVING  Eucharistic Prayer B

Presider

Assembly

The Lord be with you.  And also with you.

Presider

Assembly

Lift up your hearts.  We lift them to the Lord.

Presider

Assembly

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.  It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through the great shepherd of your flock, Jesus Christ our Lord; who after his resurrection sent forth his apostles to preach the Gospel and to teach all nations; and promised to be with them always, even to the end of the ages. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS  A Community Mass

Richard Proulx (1937–2010)

Presider  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Him you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” After Supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”
Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Mary, Mark, Bernard Mizeki and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All AMEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

All Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

In silence, the Presider breaks the consecrated bread.

FRACTION ANTHEM

The Cantor introduces the antiphon, all repeat it. The Cantor sings the verses, all repeating the antiphon as indicated.

ANTIPHON

The disciples knew the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

Y. The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ. ANTIPHON

Y. One body are we, alleluia, for though many we share one bread. ANTIPHON high o’er all the heav’ns he reign-eth, yet to dwell with thee he deign - eth.

All rise as able.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Bishop  Let us pray.
All  Almighty Father, we thank you for feeding us with the holy food of the Body and Blood of your Son, and for uniting us through him in the fellowship of your Holy Spirit.
We thank you for raising up among us faithful servants for the ministry of your Word and Sacraments.
We pray that Arlen, Jonathan, and Christopher may be to us effective examples in word and action, in love and patience, and in holiness of life.
Grant that we, with them, may serve you now,
and always rejoice in your glory;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

BLESSING

Bishop  Our help is in the Name of the Lord.
Assembly  The maker of heaven and earth.
Bishop  Blessed be the Name of the Lord.
Assembly  From this time forth for ever more.
New Priests  The Blessing of God Almighty,
            the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always.
All  Amen.

Caison, Jaren, & Silas Farley, sons

Arlen Farley was born in Massachusetts and grew up around the Northeast and Midwest. He was baptized and shaped by the community of Kettering Seventh-day Adventist Church. He graduated from Walla Walla College with a Bachelor of Arts in Theology and completed church ministry training at Vineyard Leadership Institute before helping to start and pastor an interdenominational church in the downtown South of Market neighborhood of San Francisco. He was confirmed as an Episcopalian in 2015 and completed a Master of Arts in Religious Studies and a Diploma in Anglican Studies at the Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest in 2017. While in Seminary, he began discernment for Holy Orders and completed field education at the Episcopal Church of the Cross in Lake Travis, TX. In 2018, he graduated from a residency in Clinical Pastoral Education at Providence Portland Medical Center. He serves as a Clinical Chaplain at Providence St. Vincent Medical Center and Transitional Deacon at St. Luke’s–San Lucas Episcopal Church in Vancouver, WA.

Arlen has been married to Andrea for 14 years and they have three boys: Silas (7), Jaren (9), and Caison (12). He loves indoor and outdoor games with his kids, listening to and making music, hiking and canoeing, cooking and eating vegetarian food, and learning.
Jonathan Whitney Hanneman

ABOUT THE ORDINANDS

Jonathan Hanneman grew up in Wisconsin and moved to Seattle in 2003. He holds an undergraduate degree in Film & Video Production and a Master’s Degree in Fine Arts, where he focused his studies on studio art and voice performance. In May of 2019 he earned his Master of Divinity from the Seminary of the Southwest in Austin, Texas. Prior to seminary, Jonathan worked in communications at SightLife, was a stay-at-home foster parent, and served as Parish Administrator at St. Dunstan’s Episcopal Church in Shoreline, where he was also Interim Music Director for one year. During Seminary, Jonathan served as deacon at Good Shepherd on the Hill, a church plant in Austin, and completed his Clinical Pastoral Education internship at Dell Seton Medical Center. Jonathan will be serving as a curate at the Church of the Holy Cross in Redmond, Washington.

Jonathan and his wife have two dogs and are excited to have returned to their home in north Seattle. Outside of family life, Jonathan enjoys photography, spending time in nature, and learning about other cultures.

Chris McPeak was born and grew up in Washington. He attended Seattle Pacific University, earning a bachelor’s degree in biology. While there he was exposed to Early Christian History and the theology of the Church Mothers and Fathers and began cultivating a great love and appreciation for liturgical expression and religious icons. He went on to receive a Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from the University of Washington and spent time in private practice. He and his spouse, Amanda, were received into the Episcopal Church in 2010 and fell in love with the mystery and liturgy (and the incense!) at an Anglo-Catholic parish. Having felt a strong call toward ministry for many, many years he began attending seminary at The Seattle School of Theology and Psychology where he earned a Master’s of Divinity in 2017. This program enabled Chris to explore a passion between psychology, Christianity, and other religious traditions. As part of Chris’ education, he spent a year in field education at Saint Mark’s Cathedral and then about two years serving at St. Mark’s as the Worship Coordinator. Chris also spent time in clinical pastoral education at Harborview Medical Center before beginning field education at Christ Episcopal Church in Seattle, where he has served as transitional deacon since December.

Chris and Amanda just celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary and on June 1st they welcomed their first child, Wren, into the world. Chris loves being a new parent, cooking, traveling, making music, and spending time with his two dogs.
