SUNDAY FORUM

Creation Care & Climate Change: Scripture, Science, Solutions

TODAY: SUNDAY, JUNE 23, 10:10 A.M., Bloedel Hall

Our understanding of creation care has often been limited to “environmentalism,” or care for the natural world. However, it is intimately entwined with the core purpose of our community. with all our ministries, and especially with our passion for social justice. Learn how, in every domain, we can act effectively to nurture beauty, wholeness, and compassion in the face of the existential threat of climate change. Join Andrew Himes for this timely and important conversation.

Faith Action Network Annual Spring Summit

TODAY: SUNDAY, JUNE 23, 2 TO 4 P.M., Bloedel Hall

Please join advocates throughout the Puget Sound region this afternoon for the annual Spring Summit, in Bloedel Hall from 2 to 4 p.m. F.A.N. summits offer a time for reflection and connection. Learn about upcoming opportunities and ways that you and your faith community can make a significant impact at the policy level. We'll share great victories from the state legislative session, updates from Congress, local organizing opportunities, and meet in strategy groups around the issues of immigration, climate change, economic justice, criminal justice, healthcare, and more. Visit <http://bit.ly/2019PugetSoundSummit> to RSVP.

New System for Weekday Parking Launched

An all-parish email was sent out earlier this week announcing a new arrangement for parking in the cathedral lots. Parking will remain free and open all day Sunday. However, Monday through Saturday, 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., the lower lot on the south side of the building will become a paid lot, as indicated by painted stripes and posted signs, beginning June 25. The upper portion of the south lot and the spaces along the north side of the cathedral will be designated “Permit Parking Only”—Saint Mark's members can get a windshield decal that will allow them to park in these areas while here on cathedral business. Pick up your permit decal from the cathedral office during the week, or contact Erik Donner, edonner@saintmarks.org. People parking in the lot for other reasons will pay by the hour using the PassportParking website or mobile app (www.passportparking.com — request zone #1989). Much more information is available on the cathedral website: saintmarks.org/parking. Contact Erik Donner or Glenn Sands (gsands@saintmarks.org) for help with the new system, or Dean Steve Thomason (sthomason@saintmarks.org) with general questions.

This service will be sung by the boys, girls, teens and adults of the Royal School of Church Music's Pacific Northwest Choir Training Course under the direction of guest music director, Bruce Neswick, and accompanied by three organ scholars under the tutelage of guest organist, Patrick Scott. Dean Steve Thomason, Chaplain of the course, will officiate. The choir will sing a setting of the Magnificat and Nunc dimittis composed by Herbert Howells for the choir of Saint John's College, Cambridge; and Carl Rützi's colorful anthem, Saint Peter and Saint Paul, composed in 1997 for the choir of Norwich Cathedral, UK. Come, blend your afternoon prayers and praises with those of our guest choir in celebration of two apostles who, by God's grace, helped found the early church.

Courage on the Threshold:

Embracing Life's Changes with Integrity & Grace— A Courage & Renewal Retreat

FRIDAY, JULY 12, THROUGH SUNDAY, JULY 14,

St. Andrew's House Retreat & Conference Center, Union, WA

If you find yourself poised between the known and the unknown, between what has been and what comes next, we invite you to join us for a weekend Circle of Trust retreat to explore the theme of threshold. In the retreat, we will contemplate what it means to stand on the threshold with courage and attentiveness, listening for the next congruent step, and honor the threshold moments in our lives as an integral part of the process of transformation and change. We hope you'll join us! Offered by Courage & Renewal facilitators Emily Chamberlain and Karen Harding. Registration deadline is July 1. For more information and details about how to register: www.couragerenewal.org/events/threshold2019

Funeral Announcement

The funeral for former Rector of St. Peter's, Seattle, and Saint Mark's parishioner, The Rev. Canon Timothy Nakayama will occur on Saturday, July 13, at 2 p.m. in the Cathedral Nave.

Cathedral Book Discussion

SUNDAY, JULY 14, 12:20 P.M., Cathedral House Room 209

Join us for a discussion of the new book by best-selling author, columnist and PBS star, David Brooks. The Second Mountain, The Quest for a Moral Life explores how we might live moral lives in our complicated, diverse and often-confused modern society. Brooks argues that, if we have been fortunate enough to build an adult life for ourselves, we often fall into a valley in which the verities which have guided our lives seem inadequate—therefore we are called to climb our “second mountain.” This new peak is more about our relations with others and our duty to people and organizations outside ourselves. He tells the stories of some who are passionately doing for others rather than themselves. This book engages and challenges us. The Rev. Dennis Tierney will be our discussion leader. For information contact Pearl McElheran, pmcelheran@comcast.net

EARTH DAY NORTHWEST 2020

Earth Day Northwest 2020 (www.earthdaynw2020.org) is a coalition of businesses, non-profit organizations, indigenous tribal leaders, educational institutions, and faith communities in the Pacific Northwest, that are joining together to protect and preserve the natural environment, commit to equity and inclusion, and ensure that our cities and towns are safe, livable, and healthy. Saint Mark's Cathedral is a member of EDNW2020, because taking care of God's gift—our planet—is a theological issue requiring our active participation. If you are interested in learning more and/or being part of a Creation Care ministry at Saint Mark's, please contact Marjorie Ringness at marjorie@ringness.org

Pilgrimage on the Peninsula: Youth Creation Care Pilgrimage for Grades 9 through 12

AUGUST 4–10, 2019. Beginning in Seattle & ending at La Push, WA; Registration: $600 ($60 Down-Payment, $540 final payment due in June; partial scholarships available)

Pre-registration deadline is Sunday, June 30; final registration deadline is July 15.

Earlier we announced two creation care events for youth in the Diocese of Olympia this summer. The registration deadline for the summer camp at Camp Huston has passed, but there is still time to register for the amazing week-long pilgrimage from Saint Mark's to the Pacific Ocean with former Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, The Rt. Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori. Teen pilgrims will start at Saint Mark's Cathedral and then head west, hiking daily in the mornings; enjoying field-trips, boating and other activities in the afternoon; resting at “waystations” each night; and finally reaching the shores of the Pacific Ocean. Along the way we will hear inspirational stories about what teens and adults are doing to stem climate change. Bishop Jefferts Schori, who has a Ph.D. in Oceanography, will share her unique perspective as both a faith leader and a scientist. For more info. and to register:
