THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
CHRISTMAS EVE
December 24, 2019
11:00 PM
On this happy feast of Christmas, the Bishop, Dean, staff and faith community of Saint Mark’s welcome you to this cathedral. We are glad you have joined us to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord, and to share your Christmas hopes and joy with us. If you are looking for a church home, we hope you will perhaps find one here. Please let us know if you would like to explore what becoming a part of the Saint Mark’s community might mean for you. We are eager to meet you and learn what brought you here. Please fill out a visitor’s card (in the pew racks or hymnal pocket) and put it in the collection plate, or give it to one of the clergy, and we will be in touch with you.

The life of this faith community is grounded in the worship of God, as God is revealed in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Our regular Sunday and weekday liturgical schedule may be found on the back cover. Tomorrow, Wednesday, December 25, we celebrate the Christmas Day Eucharist at 10 A.M. On the First Sunday after Christmas, December 29, we continue our observance of the season during our morning services at 8 a.m., 9 a.m., and 11 a.m. On Tuesday, December 31, we bid farewell to the old year and welcome the new at The New Year’s Eve Labyrinth Walk from 6 p.m. to midnight, with a Eucharist in observance of the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus offered in the center of the labyrinth at midnight.

At Saint Mark’s Cathedral, we seek to welcome and serve Christ in all people through our hospitality to newcomers and inquirers, our congregational life and programs, and our ministry in the world. Some of our upcoming events and programs are noted on the back cover of this service leaflet. The literature racks in the narthex (lobby) include information such as copies of recent sermons, schedules of upcoming concerts, and other opportunities. Please take any literature that interests you, and visit our website for more information: www.saintmarks.org.

Your participation in our worship is a gift to us, and we hope there will be an opportunity to welcome you into the vibrant and multi-faceted life of Saint Mark’s Cathedral.

Out of respect for the liturgy we are about to celebrate, please turn off all cell phones and audible devices. Please, no unauthorized photography or audio/visual recording during the liturgy. As part of our effort to serve those who cannot attend worship, this service will be livestreamed on the internet. An archive version of the livestream will be available after the service at saintmarks.org.

Please be aware that incense will be used during this liturgy.

The Very Reverend Steven L. Thomason, Dean & Rector of Saint Mark’s Cathedral, Presider
The Right Reverend Gregory H. Rickel, Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, Preacher

CAROL

God rest you merry, gentlemen • sung by all, standing as able

1. God rest you merry, gentlemen, let nothing you dismay;
2. From God our heavenly Father a blessed angel came
3. “Fear not, then,” said the angel, “Let nothing you affright;
4. Now to the Lord sing praises, all you within this place, re-member Christ our Savior was born on Christmas Day,

and unto certain shepherds brought tidings of the same:
this day is born a Savior of a pure virgin bright,
and with true love and charity each other now embrace;

to save us all from Satan’s power when we were gone astray.
how that in Bethlehem was born the Son of God by name.
to free all those who trust in Him from Satan’s power and might.”
this holy tide of Christmas doth bring redeeming grace.

O tidings of comfort and joy, comfort and joy; O tidings of comfort and joy!

The Hymnal 1982 #105, altered rhythm. WORDS & MUSIC: public domain

CHOIR

What sweeter music?

What sweeter music can we bring,
Than a carol, for to sing
The birth of this our heavenly King?
Awake the voice! Awake the string!
   Dark and dull night, fly hence away,
And give the honor to this day,
   That sees December turned to May.

Why does the chilling Winter’s morn
Smile, like a field beset with corn?
Or smell like a meadow newly-shorn Thus, on the sudden? Come and see
   The cause, why things thus fragrant be:
’Tis He is born, whose quick’ning birth
Gives life and luster, public mirth,
To heaven, and the under-earth.

We see Him come, and know Him ours,
Who, with His sunshine, and His showers,
Turns all the patient ground to flowers.
   The darling of the world is come,
   And fit it is, we find a room
To welcome Him. The nobler part
   Of all the house here, is the heart,
   Which we will give Him; and bequeath
   This holly, and this ivy wreath,
To do Him honor; who’s our King,
   And Lord of all this reveling.
What sweeter music can we bring,
   Than a carol, for to sing
The birth of this our heavenly King?
Prelude on an old German Carol
Jesus Christ the Apple Tree

1. Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o'er all the earth; ye, who sang creation's story, now proclaim Messiah's birth:

2. Shepherds in the field abiding, watching o'er your flocks by night, God with man is now residing, yonder shines the infant Light:

3. Saints, leave your contemplations; brighter visions beam afar; seek the great Desire of Nations; ye have seen his natal star:

4. Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear, suddenly the Lord, descending, in his temple shall appear:

Refrain

come and worship, come and worship worship Christ, the newborn King.

The tree of life my soul hath seen, laden with fruit, and always green: For happiness I long have sought, and pleasure dearly I have bought:

The trees of nature fruitless be compared with Christ the apple tree. I missed of all; but now I see 'tis found in Christ the apple tree.

His beauty doth all things excel; by faith I know, but ne'er can tell the glory which I now can see I'm weary with my former toil; here I will sit and rest awhile:

in Jesus Christ the apple tree. Under the shadow I will be, of Jesus Christ the apple tree.

This fruit doth make my soul to thrive; it keeps my dying faith alive, which makes my soul in haste to be with Jesus Christ the apple tree.
Go tell it on the mountain • sung by all, standing as able

CAROL

TUNE: Tell It on the Mountain

Refrain (with swing)

Go, tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;

Go, tell it on the mountain that Jesus Christ is born!

1. While shepherds kept their watching o'er silent flocks by night,
2. The shepherds feared and trembled when lo! above the earth
3. Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born, behold, throughout the heavens there shone a holy light.

and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider  The Lord be with you.
Assembly  And also with you.
Presider  Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.
All    Amen.
THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING

Isaiah 9:2–7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the trampling warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly  Thanks be to God.

PSALM

Psalm 96 ◆ chanted by the Choir

Cantate Domino

Sing to the Lord a new song; *

sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.

2  Sing to the Lord and bless his Name; *
    proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

3  Declare his glory among the nations *
    and his wonders among all peoples.

4  For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised; *
    he is more to be feared than all gods.

5  As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; *
    but it is the Lord who made the heavens.

6  Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *
    Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!

7  Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples; *
    ascribe to the Lord honor and power.

8  Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; *
    bring offerings and come into his courts.

9  Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; *
    let the whole earth tremble before him.

10 Tell it out among the nations: “The Lord is King! *
    he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
    he will judge the peoples with equity.”

11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
    let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the Lord when he comes, *
    when he comes to judge the earth.

13 He will judge the world with righteousness * and the peoples with his truth. ◆
For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly  Thanks be to God.

After a brief silence the Presider stands; all rise as able for the proclamation of the Gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION  Joy to the world! ♩ sung by all

TUNE: Antioch

The Hymnal 1982 #100 Words & Music: public domain
And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judæa, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, “Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.”

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men!”

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, “Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.” And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.
All rise as able.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate
from the Virgin Mary;
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE ASSEMBLY

After each petition:

Intercessor Let the heavens rejoice,
Assembly and let the earth be glad.

Space is provided for you to add, either silently or aloud, concerns you wish included in the community’s prayer.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond: Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.
Assembly And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY

An offering of money is collected. Each of us, whether pledging member, newcomer, or occasional visitor, is invited to make a special gift to Saint Mark’s in thanksgiving for the birth of Christ. Our collective generosity is essential to Saint Mark’s mission of proclaiming and enacting the Good News of Christ’s justice, reconciliation, and peace.

Offerings may be made by cash, check (made out to Saint Mark’s Cathedral), credit card (using the envelopes or forms provided), or using the Venmo mobile app (@SaintMarksCathedralSeattle, or scan the code at right). Please ask an usher if you need assistance. Thank you for your generosity.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Presider  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” After Supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All  We remember his death,
     We proclaim his resurrection,
     We await his coming in glory,

Presider  And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All  A-MEN.

THE LORD’S PRAYER

All  Our Father in heaven,
     hallowed be your Name,
     your kingdom come,
     your will be done,
     on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
     as we forgive those
     who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
     and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
     and the glory are yours,
     now and for ever. Amen.

TUNE: Greensleeves

1. What feast of love is offered here, what banquet come from heaven?
2. What light of truth is offered here, what covenant from heaven?

what food of everlasting life, what gracious gift is given?
what hope of everlasting life, what wondrous word is given?

This, this is Christ the King, the bread come down from heaven.
This, this is Christ the King, the sun come down from heaven.

Oh taste and see and sing! How sweet the manna given!
Oh taste and hear and sing! The Word of God is given!

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider  The gifts of God for the people of God.

All seeking God are welcome at Christ's Table.

The Assembly gathers around all sides of the altar platform, guided by the ushers. If you need communion brought to your seat, please let an usher know. Rice wafers for those who do not eat wheat are available; simply ask for one at the time of communion.

- You are welcome to stand or kneel to receive communion.
- Hold out your hand to receive the bread and then eat. Guide the chalice of wine to your mouth and then drink.
- Or you may leave the bread in your hand for the chalice bearer to dip in the wine and feed you.
- To receive a blessing instead of communion, simply cross your arms over your chest.
ANTHEM  Serenity (O magnum mysterium)

Words: Christmas Matins Responsory
Music: Ola Geilo (b. 1978)

O magnum mysterium, et admirabile sacramentum, that animals should see the newborn Lord, lying in a manger.
O great mystery, and wondrous sacrament,
O great mystery,
when animals may behold the Lord wondering to be born Christ the Lord.

CAROL with CANDLE LIGHTING  Silent Night

Tune: Stille Nacht
Descant V. 3: Gerre Hancock (1934–2012)

1. Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child. Holy infant, so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace.

2. Silent night, holy night, shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar, heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
   sleep in heavenly peace.

3. Silent night, holy night, Son of God, love’s pure light radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace,
   sleep in heavenly peace.

Christ, the Savior, is born!
Jesus, Lord, at thy birth.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Presider     Eternal God,
All          heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us
as living members
of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

Bishop     Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
Assembly   The maker of Heaven and earth.
Bishop     Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
Assembly   From this time forth for evermore.
Bishop     May God, who sent the angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior’s birth, fill you with joy and make you heralds of the Gospel;
           and the blessing, mercy and grace of God Almighty,
           the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
           be upon you and remain with you for ever.
All         Amen.
1. Hark! the herald angels sing, glory to the new-born King!
2. Christ, by highest heaven adored, Christ, the everlasting Lord,
3. Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!

Peace on earth and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
late in time behold him come, offspring of the Virgin's womb:
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing in his wings.

Joyful, all you nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
Veiled in flesh the God-head see: hail the incarnate Deity, Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die,

with th'angelic host proclaim: Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Pleased as man with us to dwell, Jesus, our Emmanuel!
born to raise us from the earth, born to give us second birth.

Hark! the herald angels sing, glory to the new-born King!
DISMISSAL

Deacon  Let us go forth in the name of Christ.

NEW YEAR'S EVE LABYRINTH WALK with MIDNIGHT EUCHARIST
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 31
6 PM – 12 MIDNIGHT

Since 1999, Seattle's most peaceful New Year's experience. Candlelight, contemplative live music from local artists, and the opportunity to "journey to the center" as the old year passes away. All are welcome. At midnight a unique service of Holy Eucharist will be offered, celebrating the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus.

THE PLAY OF DANIEL
SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 2020 • 7:30 PM

The world-renowned Boston Camerata, joined by the choristers of Saint Mark's Choir School, present a fully-staged medieval masterpiece.
Called the "greatest music play from the French Middle ages," The Play of Daniel tells a resonant story of truth spoken to power and justice for the oppressed.
This stunning production by Anne Azéma uses modern costuming, staging, and choreography to bring this 13th-century work vividly to life. Co-presented by Early Music Seattle; info & tickets at earlymusicseattle.org.

CATHEDRAL YOGA

Every Sunday at 6 p.m., in the sacred space of the cathedral nave. Pay what you can. • A gentle, spiritual practice open to all.
