The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ

Christmas Eve

December 24, 2019
7:30 PM
O
n this happy feast of Christmas, the Bishop, Dean, staff and faith community of Saint Mark’s welcome you to this cathedral. We are glad you have joined us to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord, and to share your Christmas hopes and joy with us.

If you are looking for a church home, we hope you will perhaps find one here. Please let us know if you would like to explore what becoming a part of the Saint Mark’s community might mean for you. We are eager to meet you and learn what brought you here. Please fill out a visitor’s card (in the pew racks or hymnal pocket) and put it in the collection plate, or give it to one of the clergy, and we will be in touch with you.

The life of this faith community is grounded in the worship of God, as God is revealed in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Our regular Sunday and weekday liturgical schedule may be found on the back cover. Tomorrow, Wednesday, December 25, we celebrate the Christmas Day Eucharist at 10 AM. On the First Sunday after Christmas, December 29, we continue our observance of the season during our morning services at 8 a.m., 9 a.m., and 11 a.m. On Tuesday, December 31, we bid farewell to the old year and welcome the new at The New Year’s Eve Labyrinth Walk from 6 p.m. to midnight, with a Eucharist in observance of the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus offered in the center of the labyrinth at midnight.

At Saint Mark’s Cathedral, we seek to welcome and serve Christ in all people through our hospitality to newcomers and inquirers, our congregational life and programs, and our ministry in the world. Some of our upcoming events and programs are noted on the back cover of this service leaflet. The literature racks in the narthex (lobby) include information such as copies of recent sermons, schedules of upcoming concerts, and other opportunities. Please take any literature that interests you, and visit our website for more information: www.saintmarks.org.

Your participation in our worship is a gift to us, and we hope there will be an opportunity to welcome you into the vibrant and multi-faceted life of Saint Mark’s Cathedral.
Out of respect for the liturgy we are about to celebrate, please turn off all cell phones and audible devices. Please, no unauthorized photography or audio/visual recording during the liturgy. Please be aware that incense will be used during this liturgy.

The Very Reverend Steven L. Thomason, Dean & Rector of Saint Mark's Cathedral, Presider
The Right Reverend Gregory H. Rickel, Bishop of the Diocese of Olympia, Preacher

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider  Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Assembly  And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Presider  Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.
All  Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE  Angels we have heard on high  sung by all

TUNE: Gloria

arr. Canon Michael Kleinschmidt

1. Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night, and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.

2. Come, adore on bended knee Christ the Lord, the newborn King.
   Refrain

Gloria in excelsis Deo!

Gloria in excelsis Deo!

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider  The Lord be with you.
Assembly  And also with you.
Presider  Let us pray.

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting.
All  Amen.
THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

READING  Isaiah 9:2–7

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined. You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly  Thanks be to God.

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this!

PSALM  Psalm 96 • chanted by the Choir

Cantate Domino

Sing to the LORD a new song; *
sing to the LORD, all the whole earth.

2 Sing to the LORD and bless his Name; *
   proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

3 Declare his glory among the nations *
   and his wonders among all peoples.

4 For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; *
   he is more to be feared than all gods.

5 As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; *
   but it is the LORD who made the heavens.

6 Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *
   Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!

7 Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples; *
   ascribe to the Lord honor and power.

8 Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Name; *
   bring offerings and come into his courts.

9 Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; *
   let the whole earth tremble before him.
10 Tell it out among the nations: “The LORD is King! *
he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity.”
11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.
12 Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the LORD when he comes, *
when he comes to judge the earth.
13 He will judge the world with righteousness * and the peoples with his truth.  ♦

READING
Titus 2:11–14

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Reader  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
Assembly  Thanks be to God.

After a brief silence the Presider stands; all rise as able for the proclamation of the Gospel.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION  Joy to the world! ♦ sung by all

TUNE: Antioch
arr. Kleinschmidt

Joy to the world! the Lord is come: let earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare him room, and heav’n and nature sing,
Sing, and heav’n and nature sing, and heav’n, and heav’n and nature sing.
Joy, repeat the sounding joy, repeat, repeat the sounding joy.
Love, and wonders of his love, and wonders of his love.

The Hymnal 1982 #100, words & music: public domain
And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David) to be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, “Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.”

And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men!”

And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, “Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.” And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.
All rise as able.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary; and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE ASSEMBLY

After each petition:

Intercessor  Let the heavens rejoice, Assembly  and let the earth be glad.

Space is provided for you to add, either silently or aloud, concerns you wish included in the community’s prayer.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond: Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider  The peace of the Lord be always with you. Assembly  And also with you. All greet one another in the name of the Lord.
THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY

An offering of money is collected. Each of us, whether pledging member, newcomer, or occasional visitor, is invited to make a special gift to Saint Mark’s in thanksgiving for the birth of Christ. Our collective generosity is essential to Saint Mark’s mission of proclaiming and enacting the Good News of Christ's justice, reconciliation, and peace.

Offerings may be made by cash, check (made out to Saint Mark’s Cathedral), credit card (using the envelopes or forms provided), or using the Venmo mobile app (@SaintMarksCathedralSeattle, or scan the code at right). Please ask an usher if you need assistance. Thank you for your generosity.

ANTHEM Before the marvel of this night
*Words: Jaroslav J. Vajda (1919–2008)
Music: Carl Schalk (b. 1929)*

Before the marvel of this night,
adoring, fold your wings and bow;
then tear the sky apart with light
and with your news the world endow.
Proclaim the birth of Christ and peace,
that fear and death and sorrow cease:
sing peace; sing peace; sing gift of peace.

Awake the sleeping world with song;
this is the day the Lord has made.
Assemble here, celestial throng,
in royal splendor come arrayed.
Give earth a glimpse of heavenly bliss,
a teasing taste of what they miss:
sing bliss; sing bliss; sing endless bliss.

The love that we have always known,
our constant joy and endless light,
now to the loveless world be shown,
now break upon its deathly night.
Into one song compress the love that rules our universe above:
sing Love; sing Love; sing God is Love!

All rise as able as the bread, wine and money we offer to God are brought forward and presented at the altar table.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Book of Common Prayer, Eucharistic Prayer B

Presider

Assembly

The Lord be with you.
And so with you.

Presider

Assembly

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Presider

Assembly

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.” After Supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

All We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory,

Presider And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

All A - MEN.
THE LORD’S PRAYER

All  Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

In silence, the Presider breaks the consecrated bread.

FRACTION ANTHEM  What feast of love is offered here?  TUNE: Greensleeves

1. What feast of love is offered here, what banquet come from heaven?
2. What light of truth is offered here, what covenant from heaven?

what food of ever lasting life, what gracious gift is given?
what hope of ever lasting life, what wondrous word is given?

This, this is Christ the King, the bread come down from heaven.
This, this is Christ the King, the sun come down from heaven.
INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider            The gifts of God for the people of God.
All seeking God are welcome at Christ’s Table.

The Assembly gathers around all sides of the altar platform, guided by the ushers. If you need communion brought to your seat, please let an usher know. Rice wafers for those who do not eat wheat are available; simply ask for one at the time of communion.

• You are welcome to stand or kneel to receive communion.
• Hold out your hand to receive the bread and then eat. Guide the chalice of wine to your mouth and then drink.
• Or you may leave the bread in your hand for the chalice bearer to dip in the wine and feed you.
• To receive a blessing instead of communion, simply cross your arms over your chest.

MUSIC DURING COMMUNION

ANTHEM       All my heart this night rejoices       WORDS: adapted from Fröhlich soll mein herze springen by Paul Gerhardt (1607–1676), trans. Catherine Winkworth (1827–1878)
              MUSIC: Z. Randall Stroope (b. 1953)

All my heart, all this night rejoices,
As I hear, far and near sweetest angel voices: Gloria in excelsis Deo!
All the air, and everywhere—Gloria!
Come let us all both great and small sing: Gloria!
Hail the star where hope is burning—Gloria!
Love who with love is ever yearning—Gloria!

All my heart, all this night rejoices....
Come and dwell in glory forever and ever,
Far on high in joy that can alter never.
Dwell in the house of Love for ever—Gloria!
All my heart, all this night rejoices....

Gloria!

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Presider Eternal God,
All heavenly Father,
you have graciously accepted us
as living members
of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food
in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

Bishop Our help is in the Name of the Lord;
Assembly The maker of Heaven and earth.
Bishop Blessed be the Name of the Lord;
Assembly From this time forth for evermore.
Bishop May God, who sent the angels to proclaim the glad news of the Savior’s birth, fill you with joy and make you heralds of the Gospel;
and the blessing, mercy and grace of God Almighty,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
be upon you and remain with you for ever.
All Amen.
1. Hark! the herald angels sing, how glory to the new-born King!
2. Christ, by highest heaven adored, \( \text{Christ, the ever-last- ing Lord,} \)
3. Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace! Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!

Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled!
Late in time behold him come, offspring of the Virgin’s womb:
Light and life to all he brings, risen with healing in his wings.

Joyful, all ye nations, rise, join the triumph of the skies;
Veiled in flesh, the Godhead see, hail the incarnate Deity:
Mild he lays his glory by, born that we no more may die,

with th’angelic host proclaim: Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Pleased as man with us to dwell, Jesus, our Emmanuel!
Born to raise us from the earth, born to give us second birth.

Hark! the herald angels sing, how glory to the new-born King!

6 PM – 12 MIDNIGHT

Since 1999, Seattle’s most peaceful New Year’s experience. Candelight, contemplative live music from local artists, and the opportunity to “journey to the center” as the old year passes away. All are welcome. At midnight a unique service of Holy Eucharist will be offered, celebrating the Feast of the Holy Name of Jesus.

A SERVICE OF LESSONS & CAROLS ON THE EVE OF THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY
SUNDAY, JANUARY 5, 2020  •  4:30 PM
with music by Saint Mark’s Evensong Choir

THE PLAY OF DANIEL
SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 2020  •  7:30 PM

The world-renowned Boston Camerata, joined by the choristers of Saint Mark’s Choir School, present a fully-staged medieval masterpiece.

Called the “greatest music play from the French Middle ages,” The Play of Daniel tells a resonant story of truth spoken to power and justice for the oppressed.

This stunning production by Anne Azéma uses modern costuming, staging, and choreography to bring this 13th-century work vividly to life. Co-presented by Early Music Seattle; info & tickets at earlymusicseattle.org.

THE WISDOM SCHOOL AT SAINT MARK’S PRESENTS

THE ENNEAGRAM INSTINCTUAL SUBTYPES THAT FUEL OUR BEHAVIOR

Friday evening, January 10, 6:30–8:30 P.M. and Saturday, January 11, 9:30 A.M.–3:30 P.M.
with Sarah Walston, LMHC, Certified Enneagram Instructor
