PRAYERS OF THE ASSEMBLY

Jesus fed a multitude with five loaves and two fish. Let us pray for the hungry across the world that we may heed our Savior's example and offer those who hunger abundant nourishment.

We pray for our nation during this time of uncertainty. For our leaders at federal, state, and local levels that their eyes be fixed on justice.

Let us pray for the Episcopal Church, and especially for our Saint Mark's Cathedral community, that we be led by the Spirit of God.

Let us pray for our city, Seattle, that its light may shine forth like an emerald from each of our seven hills as an example of a people who are thoughtful, passionate, and caring.

You show us your marvelous loving-kindness through the small things that grace our daily lives. The laughter of children, the sparkle of water on a lake, the scent of purple lavender in blossom, the taste of summer lemonade. We pray now in thanksgiving for all our blessings, especially for [...]

Let us pray for those who suffer due to COVID-19 or any illness, those who suffer economic hardship and for those feeling isolated and alone. We pray especially for [...]

Let us pray for those who have died, especially for [...]
