ABOUT THE LITURGY

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. We encounter God within worship and are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the hallmarks of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy literally is "the work of the people," and refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

This liturgy is developed from various resources and is designed for our use during the Fall with themes of creation, justice, and hope.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The service usually begins with an organ prelude or other music designed to call us into worshipful presence.

PRELUDE Ionian Fantasia

William Byrd

As a gathered community, we join together in praising God in song.

Please stand, as able, as the hymn is introduced by the organist.

HYMN 594 God of grace and God of glory (sts. 1, 3, & 4) ♦ The Hymnal 1982

Cwm Rhondda

GREETING

Presider The grace of our Savior Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the friendship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

OPENING PRAYER WITH LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Presider LOVING GOD, we honor your name above all names: Thank you for the land on which we live and move and have our being; for the fresh and salt-water places, the animal and plant life around us. Thank you for the first peoples of this land, the Coast Salish peoples, who have always cared for this place. We acknowledge with gratitude the Duwamish people, who are still here, on whose traditional land we gather now. Help us to work together in genuine friendships with grace and goodwill. Guide us to hear and to speak the truth with respect, compassion and commitment to peace and justice, for you call us into the ways of creation and community that are life-giving for all

All Amen.

Presider Give thanks to our God.

Assembly Rejoice and praise God's name.

The Gloria, or some other song of praise, centers the service on the Holy One we gather to praise in our worship.

SONG OF PRAISE Glory to you

John Rutter

1. Glo-ry to you, Lord God of our fa-ters; you are worthy of praise; glo-ry to you. 2. Glo-ry to you for the rad-i-ance of your ho-ly Name; we will praise you and highly ex-alt you for ev-er. 3. Glo-ry to you in the splendor of your tem-ple; on the throne of your ma-jesty, glo-ry to you. 4. Glo-ry to you, seated be-tween the Cher-u-bim; we will praise you and highly ex-alt you for ev-er. 5. Glo-ry to you, be-holding the depths; in the high vault of heaven, glo-ry to you. 6. Glo-ry to you, Father, Son, and Ho-ly Spi-rit; we will praise you and highly ex-alt you for ev-er.

The collect is the prayer designated for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Proper 24

The Book of Common Prayer 1979, p. 235

Presider God is here.

Assembly God’s Spirit is with us.

Presider Let us pray.

ALmighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.

The first reading is usually drawn from the Hebrew Scriptures, inviting us to trace our heritage in God's historical covenant with the People of God.

READING

Isaiah 45:1-7

THUS says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him and strip kings of their robes, to open doors before him—
and the gates shall not be closed:
I will go before you and level the mountains,
I will break in pieces the doors of bronze and cut through the bars of iron,
I will give you the treasures of darkness and riches hidden in secret places, so that you may know that it is I, the LORD,
the God of Israel, who call you by your name.
For the sake of my servant Jacob,
and Israel my chosen,
I call you by your name, I surname you, though you do not know me.
I am the LORD, and there is no other;
besides me there is no god.
I arm you, though you do not know me,
so that they may know, from the rising of the sun
and from the west, that there is no one besides me;
I am the LORD, and there is no other.
I form light and create darkness,
I make weal and create woe;
I the LORD do all these things.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is a sung response to the previous reading. Psalms are the songbook of the Hebrew Scriptures. They express every emotion known to humankind.

PSALM

Psalm 96 ♦ St. Helena Psalter

Simplified Anglican Chant (Robert Knox Kennedy)

The organ will play through the chant once, then all chant the Psalm together..

Cantate Domino

SING to God a / new song; *
Sing to God all the whole / earth.
Sing and bless God's holy / Name; *
proclaim the good news of salvation from day to / day.

Declare God's glory among the / nations, *
God's wonders among all / peoples.
For God is great and greatly to be / praised, *
more to be feared than all / gods.

Repeat 2nd half of chant:

As for all the gods of the nations, they are but / idols, *
but it is God who made the / heavens.

Oh, the majesty and magnificence of God's / presence! *
Oh, the power and the splendor of God's / sanctuary!
Ascribe to God, you families of the / peoples, *
ascribe to God honor and / power.

Ascribe due honor to God's holy / Name; *
bring offerings and come into God's / courts.
Worship the Most High in the beauty of / holiness; *
let the whole earth tremble before the / Holy One.

Tell it out among the nations that God / reigns! *
God has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved,
and will judge the peoples with / equity.
Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is / in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is there- / in.

Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before God,
who will / come, *
who will come to judge the / earth.
God will judge the world with / righteousness *
and the peoples with / truth.

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

READING

Thessalonians 1:1-10

PAUL, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Grace to you and peace.

We always give thanks to God for all of you and mention you in our prayers, constantly remembering before our God and Father your work of faith and labor of love and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. For we know, brothers and sisters beloved by God, that he has chosen you, because our message of the gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction; just as you know what kind of persons we proved to be among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, for in spite of persecution you received the word with joy inspired by the Holy Spirit, so that you became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For the word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has become known, so that we have no need to speak about it. For the people of those regions report about us what kind of welcome we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

The sequence hymn or Gospel acclamation moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus Christ.”

All stand, as able.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

South African, arr. Gobingca Mxadana

All sing the Alleluias in four-part harmony, ad libitum. The cantor or choir chants the verse below, then all repeat the Alleluias.

Organ Everyone, in harmony ad lib.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Verse: Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the Word of Life.

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus’s words and actions.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 22:15-22

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Assembly Glory to you, O Christ.

THE Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?” But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, “Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax.” And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, “Whose head is this, and whose title?” They answered, “The emperor’s.” Then he said to them, “Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor’s, and to God the things that are God’s.” When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

Assembly Praise to you, O Christ.

The homily directly follows the Gospel because it is grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

HOMILY

The Reverend Linzi Stahlecker

*Following the homily, the assembly is invited into a period of silence, reflecting on the scriptures and sermon.
Please stand, as able, when the Presider stands as the liturgy continues.*

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 CE and confirmed in 381 CE, the Nicene Creed is said at the Principal Sunday service and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity. At this service we use other Trinitarian creedal forms as our Affirmation of Faith.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Adapted from resources by the Uniting Church in Australia

We believe in God, who created the world in love, who led the First Peoples to this land,
who rescued Israel from slavery in Egypt,
who sent the ancestors and the prophets to judge and to bless,
who returns the exiles to their home,
whom Jesus called Abba.

We believe in Jesus Christ, born of Mary,
Heir of David and God’s Own Child,
proclaimer of God’s peace with justice,
healer and teacher,
sacrament of God’s love,
Who was tortured and crucified,
then rose again to reconcile all the world,
and is coming again to make the world new.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, whose breath gave life to creation,
who speaks through ancestors and prophets,
who is the love between Parent and Child,
who came upon Jesus at his baptism,
who gives birth to the church,
Christ’s body,
who pours out gifts for the ministry of love,
who works night and day to renew all that is alive.

We believe in God,
Lover, Beloved and Spirit of Love.
Amen.

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. Each week, we pray for the Universal Church, the nation and its leaders, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE silence held between each intercession

Deacon Gracious God, you call us to love you with our whole being, and to love our neighbors as ourselves: open our hearts to your Spirit of grace and wisdom, that we may be strengthened to do your will.

Intercessor In this time of continuing upheaval and distress for nations and people across our world, and in the Church, may your love hold us together. Make us instruments of your peace.

Silence.

Intercessor Christ Jesus our Shepherd, bring comfort and strength, healing and peace, to all who are in need or distress, loneliness or illness, fear or uncertainty. We pray especially for [...], and those we now name.

Silence.

Intercessor We give thanks, O Christ, for the blessings of this life, especially [...], and those blessings we now name.

Silence.

Intercessor We commend to your loving care all who have died, especially [...], and those we now name.

Silence.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond: Amen.

CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Adapted from resources by the Uniting Church in Australia

Deacon Continuing in prayer, in these moments of stillness and silence, we reflect on the way we live our days.

You are invited to stand or kneel for the confession.

Deacon Loving God,

All We confess that despite our faith, we are prone to wandering and aimlessness, worry and anxiety, threat and difficulty.

Despite our desire for goodness,

we cause harm to ourselves and others, and to your Creation.

Despite our yearning for you, we let fear overtake us, forgetting the one who guards and comforts us and leads us out into the paths of life.

We are sorry and we seek forgiveness.

Help us to live with glad and generous hearts, in your goodness and mercy that follow us, now and always. Amen.

Presider Friends, we do not dwell on our wounds—for Christ has risen to heal us! We do not dwell on our fears and failings—for Christ has risen to restore our souls! God loves you dearly, has mercy on you, and forgives you your sins.

Assembly Thanks be to God. Amen.

The exchange of peace within the gathered community is an ancient Christian practice. It is a sign of reconciliation, love, and renewed relationships prior to coming to God's table for Eucharist.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.
Assembly And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness, and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the mystery and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

OFFERTORY

An offering of money is received. Everyone participating in worship is invited to make an offering in gratitude for God's generosity. Together, these gifts make possible this community of welcome, reconciliation and service. Those worshiping in person may place their offering in baskets as they are passed through through the rows.

ANTHEM

Cantate Domino à 4

Words: Psalm 96: 1-3, Music: Hans Leo Hassler

Cantate Domino canticum novum: cantate Domino omnis terra.

Sing to the Lord a new song;
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.

*Cantate Domino, et benedicite nomini eius:
annuntiate de die in diem salutare eius.*

Sing to the Lord and bless his Name;
proclaim the good news of his salvation
from day to day.

*Annuntiate inter gentes gloriam eius:
in omnibus populis mirabilia eius.*

Declare his glory among the nations,
and his wonders among all peoples.

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a lengthy prayer with several intentions. We recount the story of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning “Lift up your hearts.”

All stand, as able.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

adapted from resources by South Sydney Uniting Church, Australia, and by Garry Worete Deverell (Gondwana Theology)

Presider The Lord be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

Assembly We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Assembly It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right and a joy to give you praise, O God, for by the resurrection of your Beloved you make all things new. You have dwelt among us forever, your presence known in our fragile flesh. Because you love us, you restore our souls and bodies. In Christ, you are our God and we are your people. Christ came singing a song of redemption. What you intended, he accomplished.

Now all who cry out in grief or pain may look in hope to a future when every tear will be wiped away and every broken heart comforted. Therefore, with angels and saints, and with all creation, we sing:

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS A Community Mass

Richard Proulx

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav'n_ and earth_ are full_ of your glory. Ho-san-na in the highest. Ho-sanna in the highest. Blesséd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san-na in the high-est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Presider Living God, we thank you for Jesus Christ, who enters homes and hearts, to eat and drink with all who seek to be healed.

We remember that on the night he was betrayed, Jesus sat at table with his friends. He took bread, and after he had given thanks, broke it and gave it to them, saying: "Take and eat. This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup of wine, saying: "This is the cup of the New Covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts. Let them be for us the Body and Blood of your Son. And grant that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may be filled with your life and goodness.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Eternal God, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, forever and forever.

The Great Amen unites the congregation in one great voice as we concur with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only "AMEN" in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the importance of the congregation's response.

All AMEN.

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All Father and Mother of us all,
May all proclaim your worth.
Your kingdom come, your will be done
in heaven and on Earth.
Give us today the things we need,
our shelter, our money, our food.
Forgive us our debts as we agree to treat others as you would.

adapted from South Sydney Uniting Church, Australia

Lead us in ways that do not tempt us or put us to the test.
Save us from faults or compromise that would rob us of our best.
For you are the heart of the kingdom,
your power and glory extend through time and space forever and ever,
and so shall it be. Amen.

In silence, the Presider breaks the consecrated bread.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Gary James

The choir introduces the Antiphon, all repeat it.

The choir chants the verses, all repeat the Antiphon as indicated.

Be known to us Lord Je-sus, in the breaking of the bread.

Verse: The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ. ANTIPHON

Verse: One body are we, alleluia, for though many we share one bread. ANTIPHON

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider Friends, it is Christ who is the bread of life and cup of hope, Who satisfies our hunger and thirst and makes us one. Therefore, receive what you long for. Christ is given for you.

All may be seated for the time of Communion. All seeking God are welcome at Christ's Table.

Please follow the directions of the Liturgical Ministers. Bread and wine are distributed at standing stations at the head of three aisles. The bread will be placed into your outstretched palm. If you prefer a gluten-free wafer, simply ask for one at the time of Communion. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please cross your arms in front of your chest.

Intinction (dipping the bread in the wine) is not available at this time. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please cross your arms in front of your chest as you pass by the chalice. The full grace of the sacrament is received with only the bread.
