ABOUT THE LITURGY

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. We encounter God within worship and are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the hallmarks of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy literally is "the work of the people," and refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

This liturgy is developed from various resources and is designed for our use during the Fall with themes of creation, justice, and hope.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The service usually begins with an organ prelude or other music designed to call us into worshipful presence.

PRELUDE Meditation on Schmücke dich Guy Bovet
(Tune of Hymn 339, “Deck thyself, my soul, with gladness”)

As a gathered community, we join together in praising God in song.

Please stand, as able, as the hymn is introduced by the organist.

HYMN 686 Come, thou fount of every blessing ♦ The Hymnal 1982 TUNE: Nettleton

GREETING

Presider The grace of our Savior Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the friendship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

OPENING PRAYER WITH LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Presider LOVING GOD, we honor your name above all names: Thank you for the land on which we live and move and have our being; for the fresh and salt-water places, the animal and plant life around us. Thank you for the first peoples of this land, the Coast Salish peoples, who have always cared for this place. We acknowledge with gratitude the Duwamish people, who are still here, on whose traditional land we gather now. Help us to work together in genuine friendships with grace and goodwill. Guide us to hear and to speak the truth with respect, compassion and commitment to peace and justice, for you call us into the ways of creation and community that are life-giving for all

All Amen.

Presider Give thanks to our God.

Assembly Rejoice and praise God’s name.

The Gloria, or some other song of praise, centers the service on the Holy One we gather to praise in our worship.

The collect is the prayer designated for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Proper 21

The Book of Common Prayer 1979, p. 234

Presider God is here.

Assembly God’s Spirit is with us.

Presider Let us pray.

O GOD, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever

All Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.

The first reading is usually drawn from the Hebrew Scriptures, inviting us to trace our heritage in God’s historical covenant with the People of God.

READING Ezekiel 18:1-4,25-32

THE word of the LORD came to me: What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, “The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge”? As I live, says the Lord GOD, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel. Know that all lives are mine; the life of the parent as well as the life of the child is mine: it is only the person who sins that shall die.

Yet you say, “The way of the Lord is unfair.” Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? When the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity, they shall die for it; for the iniquity that they have committed they shall die. Again, when the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is lawful and right, they shall save their life. Because they considered and turned away from all the transgressions that they had committed, they shall surely live; they shall not die. Yet the house of Israel says, “The way of the Lord is unfair.” O house of Israel, are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, all of you according to your ways, says the Lord GOD. Repent and turn from all your transgressions; otherwise iniquity will be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, says the Lord GOD. Turn, then, and live.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is a sung response to the previous reading. Psalms are the songbook of the Hebrew Scriptures. They express every emotion known to humankind.

PSALM

Psalm 25:1-8 ♦ St. Helena Psalter

Plainsong, Tone 1.7

The choir introduces the Antiphon, all repeat it.

The choir chants the verses, all repeat the Antiphon as indicated.

Ad te, Domine, levavi

To you, O God, I lift up my soul;
my God, I put my trust in you; *
let me not be humiliated,
nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Let none who look to you be put to shame; *
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes. ANTIPHON

Show me your ways, O God, *
and teach me your paths.

Lead me in your truth and teach me, *
for you are the God of my salvation;
in you have I trusted all the day long. ANTIPHON

Remember, O God, your compassion and love, *
for they are from everlasting.

Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; *
remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O God. ANTIPHON

Gracious and upright are you; *
therefore you teach sinners in your way.

You guide the humble in doing right * and teach your way to the lowly. ANTIPHON

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

READING

Philippians 2:1–13

IF THEN there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God

as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
he humbled himself
and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross.

Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name
that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend,
in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

The sequence hymn or Gospel acclamation moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus Christ.”

All stand, as able.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

South African, arr. Gobingca Mxadana

All sing the Alleluias in four-part harmony, ad libitum. The cantor or choir chants the verse below, then all repeat the Alleluias.

Al - le - lu - ia, al le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al le - lu - ia.

Al - le - lu - ia, al le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al le - lu - ia.

Verse: My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus’s words and actions.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 20:1-16

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
Assembly Glory to you, O Christ.

WHEN Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?” Jesus said to them, “I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” And they argued with one another, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say to us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.” So they answered Jesus, “We do not know.” And he said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things. “What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work in the vineyard today.’ He answered, ‘I will not’; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, ‘I go, sir’; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?” They said, “The first.” Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.”

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
Assembly Praise to you, O Christ.

The homily directly follows the Gospel because it is grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

HOMILY

The Very Reverend Steven L. Thomason

Following the homily, the assembly is invited into a period of silence, reflecting on the scriptures and sermon. Please stand, as able, when the Presider stands as the liturgy continues.

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 CE and confirmed in 381 CE, the Nicene Creed is said at the Principal Sunday service and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity. At this service we use other Trinitarian creedal forms as our Affirmation of Faith.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Adapted from resources by the Uniting Church in Australia

We believe in God, who created the world in love, who led the First Peoples to this land,
who rescued Israel from slavery in Egypt,
who sent the ancestors and the prophets to judge and to bless,
who returns the exiles to their home,
whom Jesus called Abba.

We believe in Jesus Christ, born of Mary, Heir of David and God’s Own Child, proclaimer of God’s peace with justice,
healer and teacher,
sacrament of God’s love,
Who was tortured and crucified,

then rose again to reconcile all the world,
and is coming again to make the world new.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, whose breath gave life to creation,
who speaks through ancestors and prophets,
who is the love between Parent and Child,
who came upon Jesus at his baptism,
who gives birth to the church,
Christ’s body,
who pours out gifts for the ministry of love,
who works night and day to renew all that is alive.

We believe in God, Lover, Beloved and Spirit of Love. Amen.

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. Each week, we pray for the Universal Church, the nation and its leaders, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE silence held between each intercession

Deacon Gracious God, you call us to love you with our whole being, and to love our neighbors as ourselves: open our hearts to your Spirit of grace and wisdom, that we may be strengthened to do your will.

Intercessor In this time of continuing upheaval and distress for nations and people across our world, and in the Church, may your love hold us together. Make us instruments of your peace.

Silence.

Intercessor Christ Jesus our Shepherd, bring comfort and strength, healing and peace, to all who are in need or distress, loneliness or illness, fear or uncertainty. We pray especially for [...], and those we now name.

Silence.

Intercessor We give thanks, O Christ, for the blessings of this life, especially [...], and those blessings we now name.

Silence.

Intercessor We commend to your loving care all who have died, especially [...], and those we now name.

Silence.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond: Amen.

CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Adapted from resources by the Uniting Church in Australia

Deacon Continuing in prayer, in these moments of stillness and silence, we reflect on the way we live our days.

You are invited to stand or kneel for the confession.

Deacon Loving God,

All We confess that despite our faith, we are prone to wandering and aimlessness, worry and anxiety, threat and difficulty.

Despite our desire for goodness, we cause harm to ourselves and others, and to your Creation.

Despite our yearning for you, we let fear overtake us, forgetting the one who guards and comforts us and leads us out into the paths of life.

We are sorry and we seek forgiveness.

Help us to live with glad and generous hearts, in your goodness and mercy that follow us, now and always. Amen.

Presider Friends, we do not dwell on our wounds—for Christ has risen to heal us! We do not dwell on our fears and failings—for Christ has risen to restore our souls! God loves you dearly, has mercy on you, and forgives you your sins.

Assembly Thanks be to God. Amen.

The exchange of peace within the gathered community is an ancient Christian practice. It is a sign of reconciliation, love, and renewed relationships prior to coming to God's table for Eucharist.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

Assembly And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

BIRTHDAY & ANNIVERSARY BLESSINGS

Those celebrating birthdays and anniversaries this month are invited to come forward to receive a blessing. The Assembly stands as able and joins the Presider in saying the prayers.

Birthdays:

Watch over your children, O Lord, as their days increase; bless and guide them wherever they may be. Strengthen them when they stand; comfort them when discouraged or sorrowful; raise them up if they fall; and in their hearts may your peace, which passes understanding, abide all the days of their lives; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Anniversaries:

Loving God, in the mystery of the Holy Trinity, you reveal yourself as a community of self-giving love. We thank you for bringing us together into families. Bless we pray these couples who celebrate the anniversaries of their commitments to one another, and grant that they may grow in grace, fidelity and mutual affection all the days of their lives, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness, and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the mystery and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

OFFERTORY

An offering of money is received. Everyone participating in worship is invited to make an offering in gratitude for God's generosity. Together, these gifts make possible this community of welcome, reconciliation and service. Those worshipping in person may to place their offering in baskets as they are passed through through the rows.

ANTHEM I sing the mighty power of God Words: Isaac Watts; Music: Trad. English melody, Michael Bedford, arr.

I sing the mighty power of God,
that made the mountains rise,
that spread the flowing seas abroad and built the lofty skies.

I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
the moon shines full at God's command,
and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the Lord,
who filled the earth with food,
who formed the creatures through the Word,
and then pronounced them good.

Lord, how thy wonders are displayed,
Where e'er I turn my eye,
if I survey the ground I tread,
or gaze upon the sky.

There's not a plant or flower below,
but makes thy glories known,
and clouds arise, and tempests blow,
by order from thy throne;
while all that borrows life from thee
is ever in thy care;
and everywhere that I could be,
thou, God, art present there.

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a lengthy prayer with several intentions. We recount the story of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning “Lift up your hearts.”

All stand, as able.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

adapted from resources by South Sydney Uniting Church, Australia, and by Garry Worete Deverell (Gondwana Theology)

Presider The Lord be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

Assembly We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Assembly It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right and a joy to give you praise, O God, for by the resurrection of your Beloved you make all things new. You have dwelt among us forever, your presence known in our fragile flesh. Because you love us, you restore our souls and bodies. In Christ, you are our God and we are your people. Christ came singing a song of redemption. What you intended, he accomplished.

Now all who cry out in grief or pain may look in hope to a future when every tear will be wiped away and every broken heart comforted. Therefore, with angels and saints, and with all creation, we sing:

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God and is based on Isaiah 6:3.

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS A Community Mass

Richard Proulx

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav'n_ and earth_ are full_ of your glory. Ho-san-na in the highest. Ho-sanna in the highest. Blesséd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san-na in the high-est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Presider Living God, we thank you for Jesus Christ, who enters homes and hearts, to eat and drink with all who seek to be healed.

We remember that on the night he was betrayed, Jesus sat at table with his friends. He took bread, and after he had given thanks, broke it and gave it to them, saying: "Take and eat. This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup of wine, saying: "This is the cup of the New Covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts. Let them be for us the Body and Blood of your Son. And grant that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may be filled with your life and goodness.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Eternal God, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, forever and forever.

The Great Amen unites the congregation in one great voice as we concur with all that the presider has prayed. It is the only "AMEN" in all capitals found in the Book of Common Prayer, signifying the importance of the congregation's response.

All AMEN.

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

All Father and Mother of us all,
May all proclaim your worth.
Your kingdom come, your will be done
in heaven and on Earth.
Give us today the things we need,
our shelter, our money, our food.
Forgive us our debts as we agree to treat others as you would.

adapted from South Sydney Uniting Church, Australia

Lead us in ways that do not tempt us or put us to the test.
Save us from faults or compromise that would rob us of our best.
For you are the heart of the kingdom, your power and glory extend through time and space forever and ever,
and so shall it be. Amen.

In silence, the Presider breaks the consecrated bread.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Gary James

The choir introduces the Antiphon, all repeat it.

The choir chants the verses, all repeat the Antiphon as indicated.

Be known to us Lord Je-sus, in the breaking of the bread.

Verse: The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ. ANTIPHON

Verse: One body are we, alleluia, for though many we share one bread. ANTIPHON

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider Friends, it is Christ who is the bread of life and cup of hope, Who satisfies our hunger and thirst and makes us one. Therefore, receive what you long for. Christ is given for you.

All may be seated for the time of Communion. All seeking God are welcome at Christ's Table.

Please follow the directions of the Liturgical Ministers. Bread and wine are distributed at standing stations at the head of three aisles. The bread will be placed into your outstretched palm. If you prefer a gluten-free wafer, simply ask for one at the time of Communion. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please cross your arms in front of your chest.

Intinction (dipping the bread in the wine) is not available at this time. If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please cross your arms in front of your chest as you pass by the chalice. The full grace of the sacrament is received with only the bread.

TUNE: Schmücke dich

All stand, as able.
