

SAINT MARK'S
EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

September 27, 2026

9:00 AM

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT & WELCOME

Saint Mark's Cathedral acknowledges that we gather on the traditional land of the first people of Seattle, the Duwamish People, who are still here, and we honor with gratitude the land itself and the life of all the Coast Salish tribes.

QUESTIONS?

Please ask. Ushers (wearing the purple welcome lanyards) can answer your questions or concerns, or provide a hearing assist device. All-gender restrooms are available in the northwest stairwell and on level 5 of Cathedral House, accessible by elevator or southwest stairwell.

NEW TO SAINT MARK'S?

Welcome to Saint Mark's Cathedral. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here! We invite you to complete a newcomer form, visit saintmarks.org/newcomers or connect with one of the clergy.

ABOUT THE LITURGY

Worship lies at the heart of the Christian life. It is in worship that we express our theology and define our identity. We encounter God within worship and are formed and transformed as the people of God. One of the hallmarks of the Episcopal Church is its liturgical worship. Liturgy literally is "the work of the people," and refers to the patterns, forms, words, and actions through which public worship is conducted.

This liturgy is developed from various resources and is designed for our use during the Fall with themes of creation, justice, and hope.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The service usually begins with an organ prelude or other music designed to call us into worshipful presence.

PRELUDE

Prelude on Nettleton (Tune of Hymn 686, "Come, thou fount of every blessing")

Undine Smith Moore

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

As a gathered community, we join together in praising God in song.

All stand, as able.

HYMN 686

Come, thou fount of every blessing ♦ The Hymnal 1982

Nettleton

OPENING ACCLAMATION

Presider This is the day that God has made.
Assembly We will rejoice and be glad in it.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Presider ALmighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

SONG OF PRAISE Glory to you ♦ sung by all

John Rutter

Organ Everyone

1. Glo-ry to you, Lord God of our fa-thers; you are worthy of praise; glo-ry to you. 2. Glo-ry to you for the rad-i-ance of your ho-ly Name; we will praise you and highly ex-alt you for ev-er. 3. Glo-ry to you in the splendor of your tem-ple; on the throne of your ma-jesty, glo-ry to you. 4. Glo-ry to you, seated be-tween the Cher-u-bim; we will praise you and highly ex-alt you for ev-er. 5. Glo-ry to you, be-holding the depths; in the high vault of heaven, glo-ry to you. 6. Glo-ry to you, Father, Son, and Ho-ly Spi-rit; we will praise you and highly ex-alt you for ev-er.

The collect is the prayer designated for each Sunday that “collects” or captures the theme of the day or season of the Church year. It summarizes the attributes of God as revealed in the scriptures for the day.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Proper 21

The Book of Common Prayer (1979), p. 234

Presider God be with you.

Assembly And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O GOD, you declare your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity: Grant us the fullness of your grace, that we, running to obtain your promises, may become partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All Amen.

Please be seated for the readings.

The first reading is usually drawn from the Hebrew Scriptures, inviting us to trace our heritage in God’s historical covenant with the People of God.

READING Exodus 17:1-7

FROM the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.” Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?” But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, “Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?” So Moses cried out to the LORD, “What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.” The LORD said to Moses, “Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.” Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarreled and tested the LORD, saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is a sung response to the previous reading. Psalms are the songbook of the Hebrew Scriptures. They express every emotion known to humankind.

PSALM

Psalm 78:1-4, 12-16 ♦ St. Helena Psalter

Plainsong, Tone 1.2

The cantor will introduce the Antiphon, all repeat it.

The cantor will chant the verses, all repeating the Antiphon as indicated.

Attendite, popule

Hear my teaching, O my people; *
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a parable; *
I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.

That which we have heard and known,
and what our forebears have told us, *
we will not hide from their children. ANTIPHON

We will recount to generations to come your praiseworthy deeds and your power, O God, * and the wonderful works you have done.

You worked marvels in the sight of their forebears, *
in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.

You split open the sea and let them pass through; *
you made the waters stand up like walls. ANTIPHON

You led them with a cloud by day *
and all the night through with a glow of fire.

You split the hard rocks in the wilderness * and gave them drink as from the great deep.

You brought streams out of the cliff, *
and the waters gushed out like rivers. ANTIPHON

This reading, taken from the New Testament, is typically from a letter (epistle) to the early Church, the Acts of the Apostles, or the Revelation to John.

READING

Acts 3:1-19

ONE DAY Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, at three o'clock in the afternoon. And a man lame from birth was being carried in. People would lay him daily at the gate of the temple called the Beautiful Gate so that he could ask for alms from those entering the temple. When he saw Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked them for alms. Peter looked intently at him, as did John, and said, "Look at us." And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, "I have no silver or gold, but what I have I give you; in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, stand up and walk." And he took him by the right hand and raised him up; and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. Jumping up, he stood and began to walk, and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. All the people saw him walking and praising God, and they recognized him as the one who used to sit and ask for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple; and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

While he clung to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the portico called Solomon's Portico, utterly astonished. When Peter saw it, he addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you." And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Assembly Thanks be to God.

The sequence hymn or Gospel acclamation moves us toward the summit of the Liturgy of the Word—the reading of the Holy Gospel. Gospel means “good news”—specifically the “good news of Jesus Christ.”

All stand, as able.

Children are invited to join the Gospel Procession, and gather around as the Gospel is proclaimed.

Children ages 3–8 are then invited to Children’s Chapel in Thomsen Chapel. They will return at the Peace. Parents are welcome to join their children.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

South African, arr. Gobingca Mxadana

All sing the alleluias, in four-part harmony as able.

The choir chants the verse below, then all repeat the alleluias.

Organ

Everyone, in harmony ad lib.

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Verse: My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

This reading is taken from one of the four Gospels (Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John), which depict the life, teachings, death, resurrection, and ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ. We stand for the Gospel reading to show the particular importance placed on Jesus's words and actions.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Matthew 21:23-32

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

Assembly Glory to you, Lord Christ.

WHEN JESUS entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things. "What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.

Assembly Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The homily directly follows the Gospel because it is grounded in the scriptures. It illuminates the scriptural readings and relates them to daily life.

HOMILY

The Very Reverend Steven L. Thomason

Following the homily, the assembly is invited into a period of silence, reflecting on the scriptures and sermon.

Please stand, as able, when the Presider stands as the liturgy continues.

The word “creed” comes from the Latin “credo” for “I believe.” First formulated at the Council of Nicaea in 325 CE and confirmed in 381 CE, the Nicene Creed is said at the Holy Eucharist and reflects what Christians believe regarding the relationship between the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit: The Holy Trinity. At this service during certain seasons we use other Trinitarian creedal forms as our Affirmation of Faith.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Adapted from resources by the Uniting Church in Australia

We believe in God, who created the world in love, who brought forth humankind,
who rescued Israel from slavery in Egypt,
who sent the ancestors and the prophets to judge and to bless,
who returns the exiles to their home,
whom Jesus called Abba.

We believe in Jesus Christ, born of Mary,
Heir of David and God’s Own Child, proclaimer of God’s peace with justice,
healer and teacher,
sacrament of God’s love,
Who was tortured and crucified,
then rose again to reconcile all the world,
and is coming again to make the world new.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, whose breath gave life to creation,
who speaks through ancestors and prophets,
who came upon Jesus at his baptism,
who gives birth to the church, Christ’s body,
who pours out gifts for the ministry of love,
who works night and day to renew all that is alive.

We believe in God,
Lover, Beloved and Spirit of Love.
Amen.

We pray for ourselves and particularly on behalf of others. Each week, we pray for the Universal Church, the nation and its leaders, the welfare of the world, the concerns of our community of faith, including those who are in need or suffer, and for the departed. We are reminded in prayer that we are part of a larger fellowship, the Church—the Body of Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

After each petition:

Intercessor God of heaven and earth,

Assembly in your mercy, hear us.

The Presider concludes the prayers with a collect. All respond: Amen.

CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Adapted from resources by the Uniting Church in Australia

Deacon Let us confess our sins to God.

You are invited to stand or kneel for the confession.

Deacon Loving God,

All we confess that despite our faith, we wander.

Despite our desire for goodness,

we cause harm to ourselves and others, and to your creation.

Despite our yearning for you,

we let fear overtake us.

We are sorry and we seek forgiveness.

Help us to live with glad and generous hearts, and trust in your goodness and mercy that follow us, now and always. Amen.

Presider Dear siblings in Christ,

God loves you dearly, has mercy on you, and forgives you your sins.

All Amen.

The exchange of peace within the gathered community is an ancient Christian practice. It is a sign of reconciliation, love, and renewed relationships prior to coming to God's table for Eucharist.

THE PEACE

Presider The peace of Christ be always with you.

Assembly And also with you.

All greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

Having listened to the Word of God, affirmed our faith, confessed our sins, received forgiveness, and shared in the peace, we are prepared for the mystery and miracle of the Holy Communion. At the offertory, we gratefully offer back to God some of what God has given us, symbolically in the bread and wine, and in the money we give.

OFFERTORY

An offering of money is received. Everyone participating in worship is invited to make an offering in gratitude for God's generosity. Together, these gifts make possible this community of welcome, reconciliation and service. Those worshipping in person may place their offering in baskets as they are passed through the rows.

ANTHEM*Teach me, O Lord*Words: Psalm 119: 33
Music: Thomas Attwood

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes;
and I shall keep it unto the end.

In the Great Thanksgiving, we do what Jesus himself asked us: thank God and recall all that God has done for us in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ. The Great Thanksgiving, or Eucharistic Prayer, is a lengthy prayer with several intentions. We recount the story of Jesus at the Last Supper, where he took, blessed, broke, and gave bread and wine as sacraments of his body and blood. We begin the Great Thanksgiving with the Sursum corda, meaning “Lift up your hearts.”

*All stand, as able.THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Presider The Lord be with you.Assembly And also with you.Presider* Lift up your hearts.Assembly We lift them to the Lord.Presider* Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.Assembly It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Presider It is right and a joy to give you praise, O God, for by the resurrection of your Beloved you make all things new. You have dwelt among us forever, your presence known in our fragile flesh. Because you love us, you restore our souls and bodies. In Christ, you are our God and we are your people. Christ came singing a song of redemption. What you intended, he accomplished.

Now all who cry out in grief or pain may look in hope to a future when every tear will be wiped away and every broken heart comforted. Therefore, with angels and saints, and with all creation, we sing:

The Sanctus (Holy, Holy, Holy) is the hymn of praise that never ceases before God, based on Isaiah 6:3.

SANCTUS & BENEDICTUS

Richard Proulx

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav'n_ and earth_ are full_ of your glory. Ho-san-na in the highest. Ho-sanna in the highest. Blesséd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san-na in the high-est.

We recall God's acts of salvation history. The presider says the "Words of Institution" that Jesus said at the Last Supper. At the Memorial Acclamation we remember Christ's death, resurrection, and promise to return at the end of the age. During the prayer, the Holy Spirit is invoked to bless and sanctify the gifts of bread and wine.

Presider Living God, we thank you for Jesus Christ, who enters homes and hearts, to eat and drink with all who seek to be healed.

We remember that on the night he was betrayed, Jesus sat at table with his friends. He took bread, and after he had given thanks, broke it and gave it to them, saying: "Take and eat. This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way after supper, he took the cup of wine, saying: "This is the cup of the New Covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts. Let them be for us the Body and Blood of your Son. And grant that we who eat this bread and drink this cup may be filled with your life and goodness.

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Eternal God, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, forever and forever.

All AMEN.

We pray together the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples to pray. The link between our daily bread and the spiritual food we receive in the Eucharist is an ancient connection.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our dai-ly bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and de-li-ver us from e - vil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glo-ry are yours, now and for ev - er. A - men.

In silence, the Presider breaks the consecrated bread.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Gary James

The choir introduces the Antiphon; all repeat it.

The choir sings the verses, all repeating the Antiphon as indicated.

Be known to us Lord Je-sus, in the break-ing of the bread.

Verse: The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ. ANTIPHON

Verse: One body are we, alleluia, for though many we share one bread. ANTIPHON

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

All may be seated for the time of Communion. All seeking God are welcome at Christ's Table.

Please follow the directions of the Liturgical Ministers. Bread and wine are distributed at standing stations at the head of three aisles. The bread will be placed into your outstretched palm. If you prefer a gluten-free wafer, simply ask for one at the time of Communion. If you wish to receive a blessing instead, please cross your arms in front of your chest.

It is not our practice to offer intinction (dipping the bread in the wine). If you do not wish to drink from the common cup, please cross your arms in front of your chest as you pass by the chalice. The full grace of the sacrament is received with only the bread.

ANTHEM Love divine, all loves excelling

Words: Charles Wesley
Music: J. S. Bach (from Cantata 147)

Love divine, all loves excelling, joy of heaven, to earth come down,
fix in us thy humble dwelling,
all thy faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, thou art all compassion,
pure, unbounded love thou art;
visit us with thy salvation,
enter every trembling heart.

After communion, the assembly is invited to remain seated for a period of silence, contemplating the gifts of God given and received.

From the earliest days of the Church, members of the congregation took bread to those who were ill or could not be present in person.

All stand, as able.

SENDING OF EUCHARISTIC VISITORS

Presider One body are we.

Assembly For, though many, we share one bread and one cup.

Deacon Go in peace, bearing holy gifts for holy people.

POSTCOMMUNION PRAYER

Adapted from resources by Bathurst Uniting Church, Australia

Presider We thank you, O God,

All for all that we receive at your table.

We thank you, O Christ,

for the invitation which brought us here and makes us one—and which we now take with us into the world:

the invitation to all, to come to you and find abundant Life.

We thank you, O Spirit, for restoring our souls. Amen.

BLESSING *The Presider asks God's blessing on the assembly. All respond: Amen.
